Kentlands Mansion Gallery Displays Annual Arts Barn Faculty Exhibit

Gaithersburg, MD – (September 10, 2020) Gaithersburg's Arts on the Green presents an exhibit featuring the works of Arts Barn faculty and staff, on display at Kentlands Mansion from September 11 through November 8, 2020. Located at 320 Kent Square Road, the Mansion Gallery offers the opportunity to view art in the beautiful, timeless setting of historic Kentlands Mansion. In-person viewing is by appointment only. Please call 301-258-6425 prior to your visit and be prepared to share the number of guests in your party. All guests must wear masks and practice social distancing.

Artwork images and artist information will also be featured virtually throughout the fall on social media: Arts on the Green Facebook, Twitter and Instagram, and Kentlands Mansion Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

This once-a-year exhibit provides an opportunity to view the personal work of participating Arts Barn faculty members. Experience a mixture of mediums and styles that reflect the broad talent of the educational staff. Faculty featured in this exhibit include Jaree Donnelly, Phil Fabrizio, Craig Higgins, William Mapes, Natalya Parris, Leigh Partington, Yolanda Prinsloo, Jeanne Sullivan, and Mary Weiss-Waldhorn. The exhibit will also premiere work by Sanjukta Sil Upadhyay, who will be exhibiting a painting for the first time. In addition, faculty member emeritus, Howard Cohen, will exhibit a small collection of works in the upstairs Gallery space.

The City is conducting both in-person and virtual classes and activities for adults and youth. Explore our fall offerings here. Note that all programs are subject to change based on health and safety considerations.

Please note that some of the artwork is for sale and all images are copyrighted by the artists. For more information, please contact 301-258-6394, e-mail artgalleries@gaitthersburgmd.gov, or visit the Arts Barn at www.gaitthersburgmd.gov.
